Help students deepen their sense of mission—right here at home!

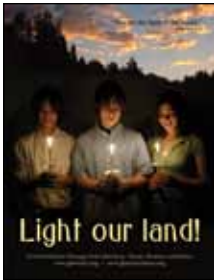

A major commitment of Glenmary priests, brothers and sisters is to continually call young people into mission and raise awareness of mission needs right here at home. We hope our series of mission education materials, geared for use in Catholic schools and parish religious education programs, will help us—and you!—do just that.

The final addition to this series is a 50-page practical and spiritual guide created for high school and college students to help enhance mission trips and service experiences. This guide and all the items listed below are fully described—and some can be viewed—at www.glenmary.org/mission-ed.

To be kept abreast of new offerings, don't forget to include your e-mail on the form below.

We hope our Educate & Inspire materials will help call a new generation into mission!
